EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Trump named Stephen Miller White House chief of staff on Friday, replacing Susie Wiles effective Monday; Democratic leaders called for Miller's firing and Trump signaled "maybe a few changes" to the Cabinet. The US carried out new limited strikes on an Iranian air-defense system on Qeshm Island Friday night, which Trump called "minor," while Iran said it sent a nuclear proposal to Washington through Qatar to be discussed only after its seven demands are met; an IRGC spokesman said Iran's self-imposed missile-range limit "has been lifted." UKMTO Warning 197-26 confirms the Khasab tanker explosion, and the IMO identified the 04 NOV vessel north of Qatar as the Greek-owned Velos Sapphire, with one seafarer killed. The October jobs report beat expectations at +165,000 with unemployment at 4.1%; Friday stocks were mixed (Dow −237, Nasdaq +1.09%) and Brent settled at $98.32, down more than 16% on the week. Hegseth's impeachment vote could come as early as next week. Alaska (Peltola +637) and Mississippi (Colom up about 2,000) remain uncalled. Abu Dhabi Ukraine talks are set for 10 NOV with Umerov leading Kyiv's team. Houthi fire at Saudi Arabia continued, including a cruise missile toward Riyadh intercepted Saturday. MN regular is $3.9303 and diesel $6.0663 (AAA 07 NOV); gold about $4,072; debt $40.556T (05 NOV).

ITEM 1: White House Shakeup — Stephen Miller Named Chief of Staff, Replacing Susie Wiles; Trump Hints at "a Few" Cabinet Changes

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN

On Friday afternoon, 06 NOV, Trump announced on Truth Social that Deputy Chief of Staff Stephen Miller will become the 33rd White House chief of staff, taking over from Susie Wiles on Monday, 09 NOV (White House release; NBC). A White House official said Wiles submitted her resignation Thursday night; Trump said she "will be moving over to the Trump Political Operation," and Wiles posted that Friday was her last day (NBC). At a Mar-a-Lago event Friday night Miller pledged "my absolute loyalty, my unwavering commitment and my total devotion to your success and the success of this country" (NBC; Fox News). House Minority Leader Hakeem Jeffries wrote that Miller "has American blood on his hands" and "Fire him today"; Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer said Trump "learned nothing from his historic defeat" (NBC). AG Todd Blanche, responding to Democrats telling Miller to get a lawyer, said "Stephen Miller has a lawyer, and it's me" (TheBlaze). Trump told CBS "60 Minutes" (taped before the announcement; airs Sunday) he may be "doing maybe a few changes" to his Cabinet, then told reporters in Florida he expects "very little" Cabinet departures (NBC). Trump also blamed the Senate for the losses, saying "The Senate is KILLING our country" and the SAVE America Act should have passed, while saying he is "very much open" to working with Democrats on immigration, tax cuts, and economic development (TheBlaze; Fox News).

US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Elevating the architect of the deportation agenda signals Trump will lean into his base, not moderate, for the final two years; expect sharper confrontation with incoming Democratic majorities on oversight subpoenas, immigration, and appropriations. More personnel churn (Hegseth, Cabinet) is now openly on the table.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	White House release (06 NOV, read directly); NBC News (06 NOV, read directly); AP, BBC, NPR (06 NOV, headlines/search; AP and NPR pages timed out); X posts from Fox News, TheBlaze, Daily Wire (06–07 NOV).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Fox News, TheBlaze, and Daily Wire ran Miller's loyalty pledge and Trump calling him "a great fighter" and "an MVP"; the White House release quoted Daily Wire editor-in-chief Brent Scher calling Miller "a wartime chief of staff." Timcast News framed it as a "massive SHAKEUP" after a "devastating midterm defeat" amid reported infighting.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	NBC framed the move as Trump doubling down on the MAGA base days after voters rejected base-focused policies, citing NBC exit polling that 57% of voters said immigration enforcement has gone too far, and recalled Miller's erroneous post calling Alex Pretti a "domestic terrorist."
CONFIDENCE	HIGH (official release plus multiple outlets; on-record quotes).

ITEM 2: Iran — US Hits Qeshm Air Defense in "Minor" Strike; Iran's Nuclear Proposal via Qatar Tied to Seven Demands; IRGC Says Missile-Range Limit Lifted

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	Trump said US forces on Friday, 06 NOV, carried out new limited strikes on an Iranian air-defense system: "they built a little bit of an anti-aircraft device and we knocked it out in about 15 minutes, maybe five"; Iranian state media reported two explosions in the Suza area of Qeshm Island (NBC; Al Jazeera). Iran's army said early Saturday it destroyed a US MQ-9 with an unnamed new system, and the IRGC claimed Friday it intercepted an MQ-1 (Al Jazeera; not confirmed by the US). A senior Iranian official told Reuters on 05 NOV that Iran sent the US a nuclear proposal via Qatar, to be discussed only after Washington meets Tehran's seven demands; the official said the US was reviewing it (Reuters via Al-Monitor and Arab News). Trump spoke with Qatar's emir Friday (Dawn; prior period CBS). On Saturday IRGC spokesman Hossein Mohebbi said the roughly 2,000-km self-imposed ballistic-missile range limit "has been lifted for us," promised "surprising" capabilities in any new war, and said if Iran changes its nuclear doctrine "the necessary preparations will be made" (Al Jazeera). FM Araghchi said he spoke with 12 foreign ministers in 48 hours, including Oman, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, and Pakistan (Al Jazeera). Trump said Thursday "We're locked and loaded. If we have to do the rest of the Iran thing, we're very much locked in" (CNBC); on Friday he said "Nothing is going to Iran. No oil is going to Iran" of the blockade (Fox News). CNBC reported a third US carrier strike group en route and cited Rapidan Energy putting the odds of renewed fighting at 80%.
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Small, repeated US strikes plus an Iranian proposal conditioned on US concessions keep both the strike and deal paths open while Congress cannot act on war powers before January. Lifting the missile-range limit widens Iran's declared threat envelope toward Europe and US basing.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	NBC News (06 NOV, search excerpt); Al Jazeera (07 NOV, read directly); Reuters via Al-Monitor/Arab News (05–06 NOV); CNBC (07 NOV, search excerpt); Dawn (07 NOV); Fox News X post (07 NOV).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Fox News and Daily Wire amplified Trump's blockade claims and his post that Israel and the Middle East "WOULD NOT EXIST TODAY" without stopping Iran's nuclear weapon; TheBlaze ran Rubio saying the president "did it for you" and Rep. James Comer saying MAGA voters are “MAD that we are in this situation in Iran.”

Al Jazeera and the LA Times framed a “pendulum” between war and talks leaning toward conflict, with analysts saying the election removed Trump’s pressure to settle; CNBC stressed that markets’ off-ramp optimism diverges from rising Gulf escalation risk.

CONFIDENCE

HIGH on the Qeshm strike and Trump’s quotes. MODERATE on the nuclear proposal (single anonymous Iranian official; contents undisclosed). LOW on MQ-9/MQ-1 shootdown claims (Iranian sources only). HIGH that Mohebbi made the range statement (Al Jazeera on-record).

ITEM 3: Gulf Shipping — UKMTO 197-26 Confirms Khasab Tanker Explosion; 196-26 Vessel Identified as Velos Sapphire with One Seafarer Killed; 11 Ships Attacked in a Week

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN

UKMTO Warning 197-26 (incident 05 NOV, 2200 UTC; retrieved directly) reports a time-late master’s report of an explosion “at the waterline, port side” on an outbound tanker 16 nm east of Khasab, Oman; crew safe, vessel continuing under its own power. The IMO listed the 2007-built LR1 product tanker Velos Sapphire (owner Velos Tankers, Greece) as the vessel attacked about 50 nm north of Madinat ash Shamal, Qatar, on 04 NOV (UKMTO 196-26), with one seafarer killed and damage but no pollution; the IMO count stands at 129 incidents and 25 seafarer deaths regionally (Riviera Maritime Media). UKMTO’s weekly report said at least 11 ships were attacked in and around Hormuz in the week ending 06 NOV, three of which sank, with 88 projectile strikes recorded since hostilities resumed in early July and 170 outbound / 155 inbound transits, about 65% below pre-conflict levels (Al Jazeera). Iran’s navy claimed Saturday that a tanker with its transponder off caught fire after hitting a mine in the eastern strait; Washington says mines have been cleared (Al Jazeera).

US IMPACT ASSESSMENT

A confirmed fatality on a named Western-owned tanker and an attack tempo near record keep war-risk insurance and freight costs elevated regardless of the week’s oil selloff, limiting how far US fuel prices can fall.

SOURCE SYNOPSIS

UKMTO 197-26 PDF (read directly); Riviera Maritime Media citing IMO and JMIC (06 NOV, read directly); Al Jazeera citing UKMTO weekly (07 NOV); Reuters headline on the seafarer death (06 NOV, search).

MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)

No right-leaning coverage of 197-26 or the Velos Sapphire death was found in monitored feeds; Fox News carried Trump saying the blockade controls what passes through Hormuz.

Al Jazeera and CNBC framed attacks as continuing at a near-record rate since the election, undercutting market hopes of de-escalation.

CONFIDENCE

HIGH on 197-26 (primary file). HIGH on Velos Sapphire identification and fatality (IMO via trade press). MODERATE on UKMTO weekly figures (via Al Jazeera; weekly report not retrieved directly). LOW on the new Iranian mine claim.

ITEM 4: Economy and Markets — October Payrolls +165,000, Unemployment 4.1%; Stocks Mixed; Yields Rise; Brent $98.32 After 16% Weekly Drop

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN

BLS reported on 06 NOV that nonfarm payrolls rose 165,000 in October versus about 59,000–65,000 expected, and unemployment fell to 4.1% from 4.2%; gains came in professional and business services (+70,000), health care (+42,000), transportation and warehousing (+25,000), and manufacturing (+19,000) (BLS; CNBC; Reuters). September was revised to +60,000 (from +29,000) and August to +186,000. Average hourly earnings rose 0.4% to $38.00, up 3.1% year over year, versus 3.7% CPI inflation in September (USA Today). The broader U-6 rate rose to 7.9%; participation rose to 61.9%; average unemployment duration jumped to 27.1 weeks, the highest since September 2021 (CNBC). Markets on 06 NOV: Dow −237.33 (−0.46%) to 51,285.73; S&P 500 +23.13 (+0.31%) to 7,376.86; Nasdaq +264.43 (+1.09%) to 24,579.42 (MarketWatch). The 2-year Treasury yield rose to 4.520% and the 10-year to 4.858%; MarketWatch said the data raised expectations of more Fed rate hikes. Brent settled up 3 cents at $98.32 and WTI up 31 cents at $90.83; Brent fell more than 16% for the week and WTI nearly 13% (CNBC).

US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	A strong payroll beat with rising wages tilts the Fed toward holding or tightening against war-driven inflation, which pushes up borrowing costs. Long-term unemployment rising alongside strong hiring suggests a split labor market. Oil's weekly drop is already flowing to pump prices.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	BLS Employment Situation (06 NOV, search excerpt of release); CNBC, Reuters/Investing.com, USA Today (06 NOV); MarketWatch close (06 NOV); CNBC oil settlement (06 NOV).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Fox News billed it as a "major jobs surprise" in the "first employment report since midterm elections"; Glenn Beck amplified Victor Davis Hanson calling it an "economic boom" missed in midterm messaging.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	CNBC and USA Today noted the beat but flagged long-term unemployment at a multi-year high and wages lagging inflation; MarketWatch stressed lingering AI-boom nerves.
CONFIDENCE	HIGH (official BLS release and index closes from multiple outlets).

ITEM 5: Pentagon — Hegseth Impeachment Vote Could Come Next Week; Tillis and Gallego Pile On; Jeffries Asks "Why Is Pete Hegseth Still Around?"

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	Rep. Thomas Massie plans to reintroduce impeachment articles against Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth when the House returns next week, and a vote could come as early as then (Honolulu Star-Advertiser/AP headline; WUKY). CNN reported a senior administration official saying "the Pentagon and White House made their positions crystal clear tonight. They are coming out swinging in support of Hegseth," after his Thursday video vowing "We Stand, We Fight" and invoking Trump's "fight, fight, fight." Outgoing Sen. Thom Tillis (R-N.C.) said "Hegseth is just not the right guy for the job" and doubted he could move the administration's $1.5 trillion defense budget; Sen. Ruben Gallego (D-Ariz.) said Hegseth "literally just doubled down and asked for an impeachment"; Jeffries posted "Why is Pete Hegseth still around?" (CNN). Hegseth congratulated Miller Friday, saying the "Department of War is right there with him" (White House release). Trump said he is not considering firing Hegseth (CNN). Trump said Friday "We haven't lost a soldier in seven months or six months" (Fox News); this report has not reconciled that claim with the US death toll previously reported at 23.
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	A lame-duck House vote is possible but Senate conviction is not; the larger risk is a weakened defense secretary negotiating a $1.5 trillion budget with a Democratic Congress during a live conflict.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	CNN analysis (06 NOV, read directly); Star-Advertiser/AP and WUKY (06 NOV, search); White House release; Fox News X post.
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	No major Blaze, Daily Wire, or Timcast defense of Hegseth was found this period; coverage focused on Miller.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	CNN compared Hegseth's position to Donald Rumsfeld's 2006 post-midterm exit and called the video "tin-eared."
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on on-record quotes. MODERATE on vote timing ("as early as" next week).

ITEM 6: Elections — Alaska and Mississippi Still Uncalled; Peltola +637, Colom Up About 2,000; Mississippi Has No Automatic Recount

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	As of 06 NOV, Democrat Mary Peltola led Sen. Dan Sullivan by 637 votes (48.2% to 47.9%) with about 70% counted and roughly 91,000 ballots outstanding; ranked-choice tabulation is set for 18 NOV if no one reaches 50%, with certification targeted by 25 NOV (NewsNation;

	KFSM/5NEWS). In Mississippi, Democrat Scott Colom led Sen. Cindy Hyde-Smith by about 2,000 votes with roughly 96% counted, per USA Today citing AP; NewsNation said about 37,000 votes remained. Mississippi has no automatic recount and no standard request process, so a contest would go to court (NewsNation). Democracy Now and others put called House seats at Democrats 253, Republicans 157, with 25 uncalled (as of 06 NOV). Democrats would hold 56 Senate seats if they win both. Senator-elect Abdul El-Sayed (D-Mich.) gave a victory speech in Washington Friday (Fox News).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Alaska and Mississippi decide whether Democrats hold 54 or up to 56 Senate seats, which affects confirmation math and the margin on war-powers and spending votes from January.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	NewsNation (06 NOV, search); KFSM/5NEWS (06 NOV); USA Today/AP via secondary summary; Democracy Now (06 NOV).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Fox News focused on El-Sayed's speech and 2028 positioning among Vance, Cruz, and others; Timcast News highlighted analysts predicting Nick Fuentes gains as "MAGA is fracturing."
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	Democracy Now stressed that Colom would be Mississippi's first Black senator since Reconstruction and that the caucus could reach 56.
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on Alaska margin (multiple outlets). MODERATE on Mississippi's exact margin (reports range from about 1,900 to 2,500 as counting continues).

ITEM 7: Russia–Ukraine — Abu Dhabi Trilateral Set for 10 NOV with Umerov Leading Kyiv's Team; Trump Teases "Big, Beautiful" Europe-Wide Deal After Dmitriev Meeting

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	David Arakhamia confirmed on 06 NOV that Rustem Umerov will lead Ukraine's delegation at US-mediated trilateral talks in Abu Dhabi expected 10 NOV, with Arakhamia, Lytvyn, Budanov, and Serhii Kyslytsia attending; Ukraine will raise Russia's strike on a humanitarian aid center in Komyshuvakha (Kyiv Independent). Budanov told CBS the talks "are not the last, they are not final." Trump met Kremlin envoy Kirill Dmitriev at the White House on 05 NOV and said a "big, beautiful agreement" was coming that could involve "all of Europe" (NBC; Politico; CNN; Kyiv Independent). Friday Trump said, "Russia and Ukraine I think for the first time want to settle. It's going to involve all of Europe" (TheBlaze). EU leaders will discuss the bloc's representation at talks on 13 NOV; Europeans are not expected in Abu Dhabi (Kyiv Independent).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	The Abu Dhabi round is the next test of whether US mediation can produce a sectoral ceasefire; Trump's "all of Europe" framing raises allied concern about deals on European security without European participation.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	Kyiv Independent (06 NOV, read directly); NBC, Politico Europe, CNN, Washington Post (05–06 NOV, search headlines); TheBlaze X post.
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	TheBlaze ran Trump's "want to settle" remark without critical framing.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	CNN reported Europe "shrugs" at the teased deal; the Kyiv Independent emphasized Europe's absence and Russia's continued Donbas demand.
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on delegation and dates. LOW on the substance of any "big, beautiful agreement" (no details released).

ITEM 8: Saudi Arabia / Yemen — Houthi Cruise Missile Toward Riyadh Intercepted; Najran Missiles and Mecca-Region Drones Downed; Houthis Claim 30+ Casualties in Taiz Market Strike

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	The Saudi-led coalition said air defenses intercepted two Houthi ballistic missiles aimed at Najran on Friday morning, 06 NOV, then a drone in the Mecca region hours later; a drone was intercepted late Friday and a Houthi cruise missile targeting Riyadh was "intercepted and destroyed" Saturday, 07 NOV, per coalition spokesman Maj. Gen. Turki Al-Maliki (Arab News; Saudi Press Agency; Xinhua). Saudi Civil Defense briefly warned of danger in Jizan on Saturday. Houthi-run al-Masirah TV said Saudi airstrikes hit Al-Hadarah Market in Taiz's Al-Wazi'iyah district Friday with more than 30 killed or injured; Saudi authorities did not comment (Xinhua).

US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Houthi fire now reaching toward Riyadh keeps US personnel under ordered departure at risk and adds pressure on Saudi energy and transport nodes alongside Hormuz.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	Arab News (07 NOV, read directly); Xinhua (06 NOV, read directly); SPA and Middle East Eye (06 NOV, search).
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	Xinhua and Middle East Eye logged the intercepts alongside the unverified Taiz casualty claim.
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on coalition intercept statements. LOW on the Taiz casualty figure (Houthi media only).

ITEM 9: Minnesota — Finstad Pursues MN-1 Recount; MN Gas Back Under $4; Klobuchar to Name Senate Successor in January

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	MPR's 06 NOV evening update reported Finstad's campaign will pursue a recount, with Democrat Jake Johnson ahead by just over 320 votes in unofficial results; the State Canvassing Board certifies 19 NOV (prior MPR reporting). MPR also reported Minnesota's average gas price dropped back below $4 a gallon. Governor-elect Amy Klobuchar indicated she will appoint her own temporary Senate successor after taking office in January, with a special election to follow in November 2027 (CBS Minnesota; Star Tribune).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	MN-1 stays unresolved into late November; the Klobuchar appointment sets up a 2027 special Senate election in Minnesota.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	MPR (06 NOV, read directly); CBS Minnesota and Star Tribune (search headlines).
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on recount intent and margin. MODERATE on Senate appointment timing (secondary summaries).
