EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Stephen Miller starts as White House chief of staff today, while Trump told “60 Minutes” his deportation policy “might be too tough,” said he would like an immigration deal with the new Democratic majority, expects “a few changes” in personnel, and still has confidence in Hegseth. Trump said the Dana White press-secretary offer was a joke. Attorney General Todd Blanche would not rule out prosecuting Democratic lawmakers over oversight threats. Trump meets Qatar’s prime minister today on Iran; Rubio called Tehran’s demands “outrageous and ridiculous,” Araghchi warned Iran would “rain down hell” if attacks resume, and Trump told CNN new strikes are “highly unlikely” if talks progress. Iranian state media said the US struck Qeshm Island Sunday night; the US has not commented. Rep. Massie is expected to file his Hegseth impeachment resolution today, forcing a vote by Wednesday, and Jeffries is a “hard yes.” Nvidia’s board opened an investigation after CEO Jensen Huang admitted an affair with a woman US intelligence reportedly suspects of spying for China; Nvidia shares fell nearly 5% premarket. Oil fell (WTI $88.39) and US futures rose ahead of Tuesday’s CPI. Colom’s Mississippi lead is 2,574 votes with about 97% counted; Alaska is unchanged. Abu Dhabi Ukraine talks start Tuesday after Ukraine set Russia’s Kirishi refinery ablaze. MN regular is $3.8910 and diesel $6.0306 (AAA 09 NOV); gold about $4,109; debt $40.556T (05 NOV).

ITEM 1: White House — Miller Starts as Chief of Staff; Trump on “60 Minutes”: Deportations “Might Be Too Tough,” “A Few Changes” Coming; Dana White Offer “Only Kidding”

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN

Stephen Miller begins as White House chief of staff on Monday, 09 NOV, replacing Susie Wiles; Deputy Chief of Staff Richard Walters, a Wiles ally, is also leaving (The Hill, 09 NOV; Guardian, 09 NOV). In a “60 Minutes” interview with Ross Douthat, recorded Friday, 06 NOV, about an hour before Miller’s appointment and aired Sunday, 08 NOV, Trump said voters “didn’t like the war,” “didn’t like the fact that gasoline went up,” and showed “a great dislike, incredibly, for Israel.” On Vance’s post that “the reason we lost is the war,” he said “I don’t disagree with it,” while adding he would make the Iran decision again. On immigration he said “I think it might be too tough, yeah” and that a deal with Democrats is “something that’s actually doable.” Asked whether he would fire anyone, he said “I do. Yeah… Little bit,” and “I’ll do–be doin’ maybe a few changes.” Asked about confidence in Defense Secretary Hegseth, he said “I do.” He said he “probably” but “not necessarily” will endorse a 2028 successor and named Rubio as a possibility (CBS News transcript). On Sunday Trump told reporters he “was only kidding” about offering Dana White the press-secretary job: “Of course, I was kidding… It was just a little fun,” while adding “I think Dana likes the idea” (Guardian; Daily Wire). White was still reported to be meeting Trump Monday on other business (ESPN, BBC, AP headlines). Rep. Marlin Stutzman (R-Ind.) called Miller's promotion a "bad mistake" on CNN Sunday; Sen. Chuck Schumer said Trump "learned nothing from his historic defeat" (The Hill).

US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Trump's immigration-deal language and Miller's elevation point in opposite directions; how Miller runs the first lame-duck week will show which way the White House leans with incoming Democratic majorities. More Cabinet departures are now openly signaled.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	CBS News "60 Minutes" transcript (08 NOV, read directly); Guardian US politics live (09 NOV, read directly); The Hill Morning Report (09 NOV, search excerpt); Washington Post takeaways (08 NOV, search excerpt); ESPN, BBC, AP (search headlines); TheBlaze and Daily Wire X posts (09 NOV).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	TheBlaze headlined that Trump "may work on an amnesty deal with Democrats"; Daily Wire ran Trump's "only kidding" remark and his heaven-and-hell exchange straight; Fox News posted Trump blaming Democrats for the post-election stock selloff ("401(k)s went down only because of the Democrats").
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	The Guardian called the "too tough" remark "an unusually frank acknowledgment" that "seemingly" conflicts with Miller's promotion; The Hill said Miller's appointment was "widely perceived as a message" that the White House is preparing for combat.
CONFIDENCE	HIGH (on-record transcript and remarks). MODERATE on the Dana White meeting still taking place (headlines only).

ITEM 2: Justice Department — AG Blanche Won't Rule Out Prosecuting Democrats over Oversight Threats; Incoming Oversight Chair Garcia: "We're Not Going to Be Intimidated"

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	On CNN's "State of the Union" Sunday, 08 NOV, a day after Trump ordered DOJ to "look into this criminal act, immediately!", Attorney General Todd Blanche acknowledged Congress's oversight authority but argued Democratic rhetoric had crossed a line. He did not identify a criminal statute or confirm an investigation had begun, and said whether lawmakers could face imprisonment depended on what crimes they committed. He singled out incoming House Oversight Chair Robert Garcia (D-Calif.), who had told officials including Miller to "lawyer up": "I would be very worried if I was a member on that committee." Blanche said DOJ would provide legal defense for officials facing congressional scrutiny, including Miller. Garcia replied, "They can come after us however they want. We're not going to be intimidated" (Axios, 08 NOV). Sen. Elissa Slotkin rejected Trump's accusation (Fox 2 Detroit; WLNS headlines).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	DOJ is now publicly positioned against the incoming majority's oversight before it is seated, raising the odds of court fights over subpoenas and of prosecutors being used as leverage against Congress. No investigation has been confirmed.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	Axios (08 NOV, read directly); Newsweek, CNBC, Fox 2 Detroit, WLNS (08 NOV, search headlines).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	No right-leaning coverage of Blanche's remarks found in monitored X feeds this period.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	Axios framed it as threatening "a constitutional crisis over the separation of powers"; CNBC said Democrats "amp up" investigation threats.
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on quotes. LOW on whether a formal DOJ probe exists.

ITEM 3: Iran Diplomacy — Trump Meets Qatar PM Today; Rubio: Iran Demands "Outrageous"; Araghchi: "Rain Down Hell"; Trump: New Strikes "Highly Unlikely" if Talks Progress

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	Trump meets Qatari Prime Minister and Foreign Minister Sheikh Mohammed bin Abdulrahman Al Thani at the White House at 1200 ET (1100 CST) Monday, 09 NOV, in a closed meeting; Vance will meet him separately (Guardian; NBC/Reuters). Axios, via Iran

International, reported Qatar is seeking more time for diplomacy on a two-day plan: day one, the US lifts the blockade and releases some frozen funds while Iran invites IAEA inspectors to damaged sites; day two, Hormuz reopens, followed by nuclear talks on the enriched-uranium stockpile. Before leaving for the G7 foreign ministers' meeting in Paris, Rubio said Sunday, "I wouldn't say we're on a verge of a breakthrough," calling Iran's demands "not just unacceptable, but in some cases, outrageous and ridiculous and really not realistic" (UPI). Araghchi posted, "Our 2-day proposal stands… Or choose war, and see our alert and battle-hardened Warriors rain down hell" (UPI). Al Jazeera listed Iran's demands as lifting post-Islamabad sanctions, cutting US regional presence, restoring June oil waivers, releasing frozen funds including in Qatar, formally recognizing the Iran–Oman Hormuz route and closing all other routes, and ending the war on all fronts including Lebanon. On Monday Foreign Ministry spokesman Esmaeil Baghaei defended the plan as the same seven-day plan shortened to two days (Iran International; NBC/Reuters). Trump told CNN Sunday it is "highly unlikely it's going to be necessary" to resume strikes if talks progress, but said the US had identified targets including 38 bridges (NBC/Reuters). UAE official Anwar Gargash said a comprehensive settlement "appeared difficult." Trump said Task Force Iron Gate is in full force; the IRGC dismissed it (Muscat Daily/Al Jazeera). A deportation flight of at least eight Iranian nationals from Mesa, Ariz., via Georgia and Pakistan was canceled Sunday without explanation, per their attorney (Guardian).

US IMPACT ASSESSMENT

Today's meeting is the main near-term test of whether the post-midterm pressure to end the war produces movement. Washington's insistence on nuclear terms first versus Tehran's blockade-first sequence remains the core gap, keeping Hormuz and US fuel prices tied to talks.

MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)

Fox News framed it as Rubio saying "not so fast" on a breakthrough, while noting Trump signals strikes "remain unlikely if negotiations move forward."

MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)

Reuters/NBC stressed "no victory in sight more than eight months into the conflict" and doubts among US and Gulf officials about an imminent deal.

CONFIDENCE

HIGH on official statements and meeting. MODERATE on Axios-reported plan sequencing (unofficial).

ITEM 4: Gulf — Iranian Media Say US Struck Qeshm Sunday Night; UKMTO 199-26 and 200-26 Confirm Saturday Tanker Incidents; IRGC Claims Southern Hormuz Route Halted

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN

Iranian state media (IRNA) reported US projectiles hit several locations on Qeshm Island on Sunday night, 08 NOV, initially citing four explosions; Hormozgan deputy governor Ahmad Nafisi said the strikes hit areas outside residential and commercial zones with no damage to vital infrastructure. Blasts in Bandar Abbas and Sirik were attributed to Iranian military activity (Muscat Daily; Xinhua). The US has not commented (NBC/Reuters). UKMTO warning 199-26 confirms a time-late report that at 1920 UTC (1320 CST) 07 NOV a tanker 8 nm northwest of Khasab, Oman, was on fire, causing the crew's evacuation; 200-26 confirms a tanker "struck by an unknown projectile" while transiting outbound through the strait at 2020 UTC (1420 CST) 07 NOV, with "All crew… safe and accounted for" (UKMTO). Maritime Executive reported no injuries on the burning tanker and at least two firefighting tugs on scene; OSINT analysts tentatively identified it as the product tanker Navig8 Messi (unconfirmed). JMIC Advisory Update 112 (08 NOV) keeps the Hormuz threat level at SEVERE, with "deliberate attacks considered highly likely," and puts US-assisted transits at about 30 per day on 05–07 NOV. An IRGC Navy official said navigation aids on the southern rocks of the strait were destroyed and oil transport through the “unauthorised” southern route has “completely stopped” (Iranian state TV via CGTN; Mehr; Muscat Daily). On Sunday Iran said a tanker hit a mine east of the strait (NBC/Reuters).

US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Tit-for-tat strikes continue under the diplomatic track. If the IRGC claim about the southern, US-escorted route is accurate, it directly challenges the US escort effort; no US or UKMTO confirmation was found.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	UKMTO 199-26 and 200-26 and JMIC Advisory Update 112 (08 NOV, search excerpts of official PDFs); Maritime Executive (08 NOV, search excerpt); Muscat Daily (09 NOV, read directly); Xinhua, Iran International, Mehr, CGTN (09 NOV, search headlines); NBC/Reuters (09 NOV).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Fox News said tensions “escalate in the Strait of Hormuz” even as Trump signals restraint.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	Reuters said tanker attacks have continued “at the highest rate since the start of the war.”
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on UKMTO incidents. MODERATE on Qeshm strike (Iranian sources only, US silent). LOW on vessel identity and the IRGC southern-route claim.

ITEM 5: Saudi Arabia / Yemen — Houthis Claim Aramco Riyadh Office Strike; Coalition Says It Destroyed Three Launchers; Houthi Toll Claim Rises to 44

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	Update to yesterday’s report: the Houthis said Sunday, 08 NOV, they were responsible for striking an Aramco office building in Riyadh (CNBC/Reuters). The Saudi Energy Ministry said the attack blew out windows across several floors of a building in the financial district, without assigning responsibility (NBC/Reuters). The Saudi-led coalition said it destroyed two ballistic-missile launchers in Saada used in the attempted Riyadh attack and a third in Sanaa used against the Eastern Province; it gave no casualty or damage details. Houthi-run al-Masirah said the death toll from Saturday’s airstrikes on a village east of Sanaa rose to 44, with 40 wounded, and Houthi spokesman Yahya Saree claimed 91 Saudi airstrikes in 24 hours (Xinhua; unverified).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Saudi retaliation inside Yemen widens the Saudi–Houthi war alongside the Iran conflict, adding risk to Gulf energy infrastructure and to Americans covered by the State Department’s reissued alert.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	Xinhua (08–09 NOV, read directly); NBC/Reuters and CNBC/Reuters (09 NOV, read directly); Hindustan Times, Jerusalem Post (search headlines).
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on Saudi statements. LOW on Houthi casualty and strike-count claims.

ITEM 6: Congress — Massie to File Hegseth Impeachment Today, Vote Expected by Wednesday; Jeffries a “Hard Yes”; Scalise–Jordan Leader Vote Tuesday

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	Rep. Thomas Massie (R-Ky.) is expected to formally notice his privileged resolution to impeach Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth on Monday, 09 NOV, forcing a floor vote by Wednesday; Punchbowl said the House “looks poised to impeach” (Punchbowl News, 09 NOV). Under House rules the Speaker has up to two legislative days to schedule it after notice, and the House may vote to table (CourtNews explainer). House Minority Leader Hakeem Jeffries said on ABC’s “This Week” Sunday: “I’m a hard ‘yes’ on the Hegseth resolution… Pete Hegseth has got to go,” adding Democrats will discuss it at their Tuesday conference (NBC; Roll Call). Trump told the Daily Wire Sunday that Hegseth and RFK Jr. are “two very fine people,” and told “60 Minutes” he has confidence in Hegseth (Daily Wire X; CBS). The Senate is expected to sit Monday and Tuesday only, with Veterans Day Wednesday; the House stays through Thursday (Punchbowl). Reps. Steve Scalise and Jim Jordan face a secret-ballot vote Tuesday for House Republican leader in the next Congress (Punchbowl; Washington Post). House orientation for new members began Sunday (Roll Call).

US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Impeachment by the outgoing Republican House is now the likelier outcome this week; conviction needs 67 senators and remains unlikely. The vote is also an early test of GOP discipline after the midterms.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	Punchbowl News (09 NOV, search excerpt); Roll Call (09 NOV, search excerpt); NBC News (08 NOV, search excerpt); Axios (08 NOV); CourtNews (09 NOV, explainer); Daily Wire X post (09 NOV).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Daily Wire ran Trump's defense of Hegseth and RFK Jr.; no Blaze, Timcast, or Crowder defense of Hegseth found.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	NBC called Jeffries' backing "a major endorsement" that signals how Democrats will vote.
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on schedule and quotes. MODERATE on outcome.

ITEM 7: Economy / Markets — Nvidia Board Probes CEO Huang's Affair with Suspected Chinese Spy; Shares Fall ~5% Premarket; Oil Down, Futures Up Ahead of Tuesday CPI

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	Nvidia's board said Sunday, 08 NOV, it is opening an independent investigation, overseen by independent directors with outside counsel, "in light of recent reporting that founder and CEO Jensen Huang has been the target of a foreign intelligence effort," adding it "has no reason to believe that either national security or NVIDIA secrets were compromised" and "has confidence in Jensen" (Nvidia statement). Huang told staff, "I was unfaithful to my wife… I am deeply sorry." The woman, Alice Huang, is affiliated with Nvidia customer Megaspeed, which has been accused of helping restricted Chinese companies get Nvidia chips; US intelligence agencies reportedly suspect her of passing information to Beijing (CNBC citing NYT and FT). Three House Republican committee chairs had asked Huang for a closed-door briefing on 18 NOV; Nvidia reports earnings 17 NOV (CNBC). Trump said, "I think he's an honorable guy" (Fox News X). As of 0610 CST Monday, S&P 500 futures were up 0.6%, Nasdaq 100 futures up 0.5%, and Dow futures up 0.9%, with Nvidia down nearly 5% early; WTI was $88.39 (−2.7%), Brent around $95 after an unconfirmed report of Iranian concessions on Hormuz, the 10-year Treasury yield 4.86%, and Bitcoin $74,432.88 (Bloomberg via swissinfo). Earlier, at 0411 CST, Brent was $97.57 after a 16% weekly drop last week (CNBC/Reuters). The S&P 500 just had its worst week since April 2025; US CPI is due Tuesday, 10 NOV, with traders pricing almost 80% odds of a Fed hike by year-end (Bloomberg). Trump blamed Democrats for the selloff (Fox News X).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	The Huang inquiry adds national-security and export-control risk to the most important US AI-chip company just as Congress and the White House weigh China chip policy. Lower oil helps pump prices, but hike expectations keep pressure on borrowing costs.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	Nvidia newsroom statement (08 NOV, read directly); CNBC (08 NOV, read directly); AP (08 NOV, lead only); Bloomberg markets wrap via swissinfo (09 NOV, read directly); CNBC/Reuters oil (09 NOV, read directly); Fox News X posts (08 NOV).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Fox News emphasized Trump "not rushing to judgment" on Huang and Trump blaming Democrats for "$3 trillion" in lost market value (Trump's figure, unverified).
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	CNBC framed the story around Megaspeed's alleged export-control evasion and Huang's push for broader chip sales to China.
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on Nvidia statements and market prints. MODERATE on intelligence-agency suspicions (press reports). LOW on the Iranian-concession report (unconfirmed).

ITEM 8: Elections — Colom Leads by 2,574 with ~97% Counted; 2,800+ Mississippi Absentees Out; Alaska

Unchanged at 637

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	Mississippi Secretary of State Michael Watson said Sunday, 08 NOV, that 75 of 82 counties had uploaded unofficial results, just over 2,800 absentee mail-in ballots are still out, and 12,767 affidavit ballots have been processed with about 77% accepted. AP's latest estimate has Democrat Scott Colom at 467,930 to Sen. Cindy Hyde-Smith's 465,356, a 2,574-vote lead with about 97% counted (WAPT, 1753 CST 08 NOV). The affidavit cure deadline is 10 NOV and county certification 13 NOV (prior reporting). In Alaska, Democrat Mary Peltola still leads Sen. Dan Sullivan 102,962 to 102,325 (637 votes) with about 74% of expected votes counted; the count has not changed since 04 NOV, and ranked-choice tabulation is set for 18 NOV (Newsweek; electED). The Washington Post reported Trump "continues to claim GOP win in Alaska" (headline). Neither race has been called.
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	With fewer than 3,000 Mississippi absentees outstanding against a 2,574-vote margin, Hyde-Smith's path narrows to affidavit cures and legal challenges. Alaska decides the final Senate margin later in November.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	WAPT/Hearst (08 NOV, read directly); Hattiesburg American, CNBC, MS NOW (08–09 NOV, search headlines); Newsweek, electED (search excerpts); Washington Post (headline only).
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	CNBC framed Colom as "on the cusp of history"; MS NOW said his "lead widens."
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on Mississippi figures (SOS and AP). HIGH on Alaska tallies. LOW on final outcomes.

ITEM 9: Russia–Ukraine — Abu Dhabi Talks Open Tuesday; Ukraine Sets Kirishi Refinery Ablaze; Odesa Strike Kills Three; Kremlin Insists on Trilateral Format

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	US-mediated talks with Ukraine and Russia open in Abu Dhabi on Tuesday, 10 NOV, the first in over nine months, with Steve Witkoff and Jared Kushner leading the US side (AFP via France 24; Reuters/Axios). AFP said Kyiv's delegation is led by Rustem Umerov and includes Kyrylo Budanov; Russia's is led by Vladimir Medinsky with Sergei Ryabkov, Mikhail Galuzin, Igor Kostyukov, and Gen. Yuri Zhygarlovsky. Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov said Monday the talks remain "trilateral" after France said Europe would be represented; an EU official said EU, NATO, French, German, and UK security officials would be on site (Al Jazeera/Reuters; AFP). Overnight 08–09 NOV, Ukrainian drones set Russia's Kirishi refinery, its second-largest, on fire; Leningrad's governor said 113 drones were downed and falling debris killed a woman. Ukraine said it also hit the Morozov explosives plant near St. Petersburg. A Russian strike on Odesa killed three. Ukraine's energy ministry counted 128 Russian attacks on the energy sector in the past week, and Zelenskyy said the EU agreed to an emergency funding mechanism (Al Jazeera/Reuters). Trump told "60 Minutes" Ukraine will "end up with a little bit different shape" (CBS).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Abu Dhabi is the main US-led diplomatic event of the week; Trump's "different shape" remark and European worries about a "Yalta 2.0" deal frame the risk to transatlantic unity. Strikes on Russian refineries add a modest upside risk to global fuel prices.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	Al Jazeera/Reuters (09 NOV, read directly); France 24/AFP (09 NOV, read directly); Kyiv Independent, ABC Australia, Meduza (09 NOV, search headlines); CBS transcript (08 NOV).
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	AFP stressed Ukrainian pessimism, Zelenskyy's "Yalta 2.0" warning, and reports that Witkoff and Kushner are pushing business deals with Moscow.
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on talks schedule and Kirishi fire. MODERATE on drone and strike counts (official claims from each side).

ITEM 10: Minnesota — MN-1 Recount Pending; MN Gas Falls Again

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	No change in the 1st District: Democrat Jake Johnson leads Rep. Brad Finstad by 323 votes, Finstad has requested a publicly funded recount, and the State Canvassing Board meets 19 NOV (KSTP "At Issue," 08 NOV; prior Star Tribune reporting). AAA's Minnesota regular average fell to $3.8910, about 12 cents below the national average (see cost snapshot).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	MN-1 remains unresolved into late November; no effect on House control.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	KSTP (08 NOV, search headline); MPR, Star Tribune, The Journal (05–07 NOV); AAA Minnesota (09 NOV, read directly).
CONFIDENCE	HIGH.

MN / US COST SNAPSHOT

UNCONFIRMED / QUARANTINED

US strike on Qeshm Island Sunday night	Iranian state media only; US has not commented.

- IRGC claim that navigation aids on the southern rocks of Hormuz were destroyed and oil transport on the southern route “completely stopped”: Iranian source only.

OSINT identification of the Khasab tanker as Navig8 Messi	tentative, per Maritime Executive.

- Bloomberg-cited report that Iran made concessions on Hormuz control: unconfirmed; contradicted by Araghchi and Baghaei public statements.
- Houthi claims (44 killed near Sanaa, 91 Saudi strikes in 24 hours): unverified.
- Trump’s “$3 trillion” market-value loss figure blamed on Democrats: Trump’s claim, not verified.
- Reports that US intelligence suspects Alice Huang of spying for China: press reports citing unnamed sources (NYT/FT via CNBC); no official US confirmation.

Carry-forward	IRGC two-tanker mine claim; Houthi King Khalid airport and Khurais/Dawadmi claims; Qeshm/Jask 07 NOV explosions cause; disabled-ship count discrepancy (ABC 11 vs CENTCOM five plus 10 destroyed); Iranian MQ-9/MQ-1 claims; Trump’s “haven’t lost a soldier” remark; Taiz market attribution; Carlson nuclear-strike claim; Rezaei’s “readiness” claim; Melania Trump “intermediary” report; Glenn Beck’s HSI Omar memo; Bessent’s $1 billion Iran-linked crypto; DHS “large case” report on Omar; Palm Beach flight-path rumors; Timcast “$2.5 trillion” and “43-point swing” figures.

GAPS AND NOTES

- Friday’s (06 NOV) Debt to the Penny record was not yet posted at cutoff; 05 NOV is the latest.
- Gold is a Bloomberg spot quote via a syndicated wrap, not Kitco/LBMA. EIA electricity (August 2026) is carried from the 06 NOV check.
- Brent quotes differ by time of day (Reuters $97.57 at 0411 CST; Bloomberg “about $95” later); both are reported with times. Friday’s 06 NOV cash closes were not re-pulled.

- Mississippi affidavit-cure outcomes and the new Alaska count are not yet available. The Washington Post Alaska story was read as a headline only.
- The Dana White meeting status rests on headlines (ESPN, BBC, AP), not a read article.

Right-leaning coverage

X feeds of TheBlaze, Glenn Beck, Daily Wire, Tim Pool/Timcast, Steven Crowder, S2 Underground, Fox News, Ben Shapiro, and Matt Walsh were searched from 1330 UTC 08 NOV. Found: TheBlaze on Trump's "amnesty deal" remark; Daily Wire on the Dana White joke, Hegseth/RFK Jr., and Vance; Fox News on Huang, the market selloff, Rubio, Iran, and Eisenkot. Timcast and Walsh posts were about Dave Chappelle's Charlie Kirk joke and cancel culture (not included as items). No S2 Underground, Crowder, or Shapiro posts matched the window's top results; Glenn Beck appeared only via a TheBlaze post on churches.
