EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

After a 45-minute Oval Office meeting with Qatar's prime minister, Trump said "Iran militarily is effectively over" and the war is "going to be ending fairly soon," but kept the naval blockade and Task Force Iron Gate in place as the "status quo" and said the US is "locked and loaded." Tehran's security chief Rezaei called the talks "imaginary," and Araghchi denied a reported Vance–Rezaei meeting in Doha. Brent fell below $90 for the first time since August. Rep. Massie filed eight articles of impeachment against Defense Secretary Hegseth; the House could take up a procedural motion as early as 1630 CST today. At his first Pentagon briefing since May, Hegseth called the effort "a farce" and "a stunt," and Trump called Massie "a sick, sick guy." House and Senate Republicans pick leaders this morning (Scalise vs. Jordan; Thune unopposed, with a push to delay). At a surprise briefing with Dana White, who declined the press-secretary job, Trump said the FBI is looking into Nvidia CEO Jensen Huang and that he believes Huang. A shareholder class action was filed against Nvidia, which closed down 4.27% as the Dow rose 1,104 points. Trump also questioned whether the midterms were "honest" and said of Alaska, "They stole it"; Peltola's lead there grew to 2,517. Colom leads in Mississippi by nearly 2,600 ahead of today's cure deadline. Abu Dhabi talks on Ukraine finished day one after about four hours and resume Wednesday. October CPI is due at 0730 CST, just after cutoff (consensus +0.3%). MN regular is $3.8678 and diesel $6.0026 (AAA, 10 NOV); national regular fell below $4 to $3.9788; gold is $4,071.30 (Kitco); debt is $40.553T (06 NOV).

ITEM 1: Iran Diplomacy — Trump After Qatar PM Meeting: War "Militarily Effectively Over," Blockade Stays; Rezaei: "Imaginary Talks"; Araghchi Denies Vance–Rezaei Meeting

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN

Trump and Qatari Prime Minister and Foreign Minister Sheikh Mohammed bin Abdulrahman Al Thani met for about 45 minutes in the Oval Office around noon ET (1100 CST) Monday, 09 NOV, with Vance present; Al Thani met Vance separately beforehand. Axios reported he urged Trump to give diplomacy more time, and that Trump said he wanted a deal and would give negotiations a chance but could reverse course if Tehran did not engage seriously (Axios via Iran International; UPI). Al Thani posted, "Grateful for the positive discussions on reaching a deal and bringing peace to the region." In a surprise briefing-room appearance afterward, Trump said, "Iran militarily is effectively over. We're just keeping it the status quo," "I think it's going to be ending fairly soon," and "they're talking very politely." In a Truth Social post he said Qatar, Saudi Arabia, the UAE, Bahrain, Kuwait, and others "would prefer the status quo," which he described as "a continuation of the greatest naval blockade in the history of our country," plus Task Force Iron Gate. He said "we're locked and loaded, ready to go" if anything changes and called a ban on an Iranian nuclear weapon “non-negotiable!” He also said of Iran’s nuclear stance, “They understand that. They accept that. They don’t admit that they accept it” (AP; Al Jazeera; UPI; CNBC; Iran International). Iran’s Supreme National Security Council secretary Mohsen Rezaei posted, “STOP manufacturing FAKE NEWS about imaginary talks.” On Monday Turkish intelligence chief Ibrahim Kalin said Vance and Rezaei would meet in Qatar next week (Türkiye newspaper via Iran International; ISW). On Tuesday, 10 NOV, Araghchi said there are no such plans and that “the only way to end it is diplomacy and acceptance of the Islamic Republic’s conditions” (Iran International, 0143 CST). Foreign Ministry spokesman Esmaeil Baghaei said Iran will not transfer enriched uranium abroad and that inspections of damaged sites cannot proceed under current conditions (Al Mayadeen via Iran International). President Pezeshkian said, “The supreme leader ordered us to end the no-war, no-peace situation” (Reuters via Iran International). Bloomberg, citing an official, reported talks will continue and a fresh escalation is unlikely (via Investing.com).

US IMPACT ASSESSMENT

Trump’s message moves toward de-escalation without a deal. The blockade continues, sequencing (blockade relief first versus nuclear terms first) remains unresolved, and Tehran publicly denies there are talks. The near-term US benefit is lower oil and pump prices; the risk is that the “status quo” persists through the lame duck with sporadic strikes.

MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)

Fox News emphasized “locked and loaded” and Trump’s defense of the war; TimcastNews highlighted Hegseth’s claim that 80% of Iran’s nuclear industrial base is “GONE” (see Item 2 and Quarantine).

MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)

Al Jazeera said Trump’s remarks suggested “pressure from allies in the Middle East” to end hostilities; Foreign Policy said senior officials “appear to be pessimistic” about an imminent deal; AP noted that Trump has repeatedly predicted an end to the war.

CONFIDENCE

HIGH on on-record statements and the meeting. MODERATE on Axios’s account of the private exchange. LOW on a Vance–Rezaei meeting (Turkish claim, denied by Tehran).

ITEM 2: Congress — Massie Files Eight Hegseth Impeachment Articles; Floor Action Possible 1630 CST Today; Hegseth: “A Farce,” “A Stunt”; Trump: Massie “a Sick, Sick Guy”

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN

Rep. Thomas Massie (R-Ky.) read his privileged resolution on the House floor Monday, 09 NOV, the first day of sessions after the midterms. It lists eight articles: three on waging the Iran war in violation of the War Powers Resolution, one on ignoring civilian-casualty laws, one on “extrajudicial killings” in strikes on alleged drug boats in the Caribbean and Eastern Pacific, one on suppressing free speech (the effort to punish Sen. Mark Kelly), one on the capture of Venezuelan President Nicolás Maduro without congressional authorization, and one on waging war against Yemen (NPR; Roll Call; Massie’s posted text). The Speaker must schedule it within two legislative days (Roll Call). The daily floor schedule lists a possible “procedural motion relating” to the resolution as early as 5:30 p.m. ET (1630 CST) today, 10 NOV, so Republicans could move to table or refer it; either needs a majority, and defeating it would force a vote on impeachment. Thirty-six members were absent from Monday night’s votes, and NBC has heard from no Republican other than Massie committed to impeachment (NBC live blog, 0716 CST). Massie said he has neither asked for nor received assurances (Roll Call). At a Monday briefing Trump called Massie “a sick, sick guy” and “a loser,” said soldiers “love Pete Hegseth,” and said he would stand by him if impeached (NBC; Fox News). At his first Pentagon briefing since May, at about 0700 CST today, Hegseth called the effort “a farce,” “a stunt,” and “a political spectacle, a personal manifesto driven by ego and resentment,” said “the proper remedy for a policy disagreement, it’s legislation, it’s debate, it's the next presidential election," and said Trump "did not kick the can, he kicked their teeth in" (NBC live blog; Fox News X). AG Todd Blanche also defended Hegseth on Fox: "He is executing on President Trump's mission" (Fox News X).

US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	The tabling vote is the real test of GOP discipline; attendance in a lame-duck week could decide it. Impeachment would not remove Hegseth (two-thirds Senate needed), but it would add pressure for a Pentagon change before Democrats take over in January.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	NPR (09 NOV, search excerpt); Roll Call (09 NOV, search excerpt); Massie resolution PDF (search excerpt); NBC News live blog (10 NOV, read directly); NBC News (09 NOV, read directly); AP and USA Today (09 NOV, search excerpts); Fox News X posts (09–10 NOV).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Fox News ran Hegseth's "ego and resentment" line and Trump's "What about impeaching the leaders of these stupid wars?"; Jesse Watters called it "a humiliation ritual" to "cripple the Cabinet"; TimcastNews ran Hegseth's "80%" claim.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	USA Today called Hegseth "the public face of an increasingly unpopular war"; AP noted Republicans' losses were "blamed in part on fallout from the war in Iran."
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on filing, articles, schedule, and quotes. LOW on outcome.

ITEM 3: White House — Trump and Dana White Take the Briefing Room; White Declines Job; Trump: Immigration Policy "Hasn't Changed," "No Amnesty"; Truth Social Questions Midterm Honesty

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	Trump made a surprise appearance in the White House briefing room Monday afternoon, 09 NOV, his first post-midterm briefing (about 30 minutes), with UFC CEO Dana White. Trump said the press-secretary offer came on "a very bad press day" and "I was sort of kidding." White said, "I have zero political aspirations," and at the close, "Thank you for the offer, sir. I do not want to be in politics." Trump replied, "I am devastated to hear this" (NBC; Fox News; USA Today). The post has been vacant since late August except for Katie Zacharia's five days last month (NBC). On his "60 Minutes" remarks, Trump said his immigration policy "hasn't changed" but he is "open" to a deal: "We're not going to have amnesty or anything" (NBC). CBS reported, citing sources, that the immigration crackdown won't ease under Stephen Miller, whose first day as chief of staff was Monday (CBS headline; Washington Post). Earlier Monday, Trump posted on Truth Social: "Does anybody really believe that this 'Election' was honest… Some early voting 'dumps' were so large that it was impossible to win… It's all about the machines." At the briefing he said "the numbers were terrible in terms of those early votes" and, on Alaska, "They stole it" and "Dan Sullivan won easily if you add up the numbers" (USA Today; NBC). On election night Trump had told the New York Times he was "absolutely willing" to accept the results (USA Today). Trump also told the Senate to move on his nominations (TheBlaze X).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Trump's election-integrity claims, made while Alaska and Mississippi are still being counted, raise the odds of legal and political fights over certification. On immigration, "open to a deal" plus "no amnesty" and Miller's elevation means there is no clear policy signal for the new Congress.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	NBC News (09 NOV, read directly); USA Today (09 NOV, read directly); Fox News (09 NOV, search excerpt and X posts); Washington Post and CBS (09 NOV, headlines); Independent (10 NOV, search excerpt); TheBlaze X post.
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	TheBlaze ran "3 times Trump's new chief of staff, Stephen Miller, proved himself a MAGA asset — and a terror to the left"; Fox News focused on White's praise of Trump as "the toughest, most resilient human being"; Tim Pool's panel debated whether Trump went "too far" or "not far enough" as the cause of the losses.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	USA Today called the election claims "baseless assertions of voter fraud" and noted "election officials across the country have also not raised major concerns"; The New Republic headlined that Trump "begs to win a single midterm election."

CONFIDENCE	HIGH on quotes. MODERATE on Miller's immigration posture (CBS sources, headline only).

ITEM 4: Congress — Republicans Elect Leaders This Morning: Scalise vs. Jordan; Thune Unopposed Amid Ron Johnson Push to Delay; Emmer Faces Whip Challenge

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	House Republicans meet at 9 a.m. ET (0800 CST) Tuesday, 10 NOV, to pick leaders for the 120th Congress after Speaker Mike Johnson stepped aside. Reps. Steve Scalise (La.) and Jim Jordan (Ohio) are running for minority leader by secret ballot. Rep. August Pfluger (Texas) is challenging Majority Whip Tom Emmer (Minn.), and Conference Chair Lisa McClain faces Reps. Erin Houchin and Greg Steube (CBS News live, 0659 CST). Johnson said the votes could not be delayed for logistical reasons with new members in orientation, and did not commit to serving his full new term. Ways and Means Chair Jason Smith had urged a delay to rewrite conference rules (CBS). In the Senate, John Thune is expected to be elected minority leader without a challenger. Sen. Ron Johnson (R-Wis.) is leading a letter to delay the vote; a conference meeting is set for 9 a.m. ET. Johnson said, "that kind of defeat demands change," while conceding there is no clear alternative. Thune said "it's important… that we get some of these issues settled as soon as possible" (CBS). CBS says Democrats are on pace for at least 256 House seats and will control at least 54 Senate seats.
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	These picks set who negotiates with a Democratic Congress on the budget, war powers, and investigations from January. Emmer's race is the main Minnesota angle.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	CBS News live updates (10 NOV, read directly); AP, ABC, Axios, Semafor, Politico (10 NOV, headlines); NBC live blog (10 NOV).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Fox News ran Mike Johnson's farewell ("Most of you all didn't know if I'd last three weeks"); TheBlaze ran a McConnell "bizarre reaction" video.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	Politico framed it as a "post-election reckoning"; NBC said Republicans were "reeling from an election drubbing."
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on schedule and candidates. Results not yet known at cutoff.

ITEM 5: Economy / Markets — Dow +1,104 on Oil Drop and Chip Rebound; Nvidia −4.27%; Trump: FBI "Looking Into" Huang; Shareholder Suit Filed; Brent Below $90; CPI at 0730 CST

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	On Monday, 09 NOV, the Dow rose 1,104.02 points (2.15%) to 52,389.75, the S&P 500 gained 2.35% to 7,549.94 (its best day since 08 APR), and the Nasdaq Composite gained 2.74% to 25,253.14. WTI settled at $86.85 (−4.38%) and Brent at $92.57 (−5.85%) (CNBC). Chip stocks led (AMD +13%, SOXX +7.5%), but Nvidia closed at $178.67, down $7.97 or 4.27% (Nvidia investor site; Investopedia). At the briefing Trump said, "I know the FBI is looking into [Huang] and I think that he'll be in good shape," and that Huang told him, "I had no idea that she was a spy, and I really believe him" (Investing.com; NBC). China denied involvement, calling the reports a "smear" (NBC). A shareholder filed a securities class action Monday in federal court in San Jose (Kistenmacher v. NVIDIA, N.D. Cal., reported case no. 5:26-cv-13448), alleging Nvidia and Huang misled investors by not disclosing the relationship. The proposed class covers purchases from 09 OCT 2025 to 08 NOV 2026 (Courthouse News; AP and Politico headlines; Fox News). At 0433 CST Tuesday, Brent was $90.14 (−2.65%), below $90 earlier for the first time since August, and WTI was $84.78 (CNBC). At 0217 CST, S&P 500 futures were up 0.2%, Nasdaq 100 futures down 0.1%, and Dow futures up 0.5% (Investing.com). October CPI is due at 0830 ET (0730 CST) today, just after cutoff. Consensus is +0.3% headline and +0.2% core month over month (September: +0.6%/+0.3%). No official annual rate will be published because of last year's shutdown; Bank of America estimates 3.8% headline and 2.7% core. CME FedWatch shows better than 80% odds of a December hike (FOMC 08–09 DEC). Chicago Fed President Goolsbee said, "We've got to come to terms with this cost-side and inflation-side failure" (CNBC).

US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Falling oil is the main relief for consumers, but the Fed is still leaning toward a December hike unless CPI is soft. The Huang matter is now a federal investigation (per Trump) and a securities case, adding overhang before Nvidia's 17 NOV earnings and the 18 NOV House briefing request.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	CNBC markets wrap (09 NOV, search excerpt); Nvidia investor-relations quote page (09 NOV close); Investopedia (09 NOV); CNBC oil (10 NOV, read directly); Investing.com via Yahoo Finance (10 NOV, read directly); CNBC CPI preview (09 NOV, read directly); Courthouse News complaint (search excerpt); NBC (09 NOV, read directly); Fox News X.
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	TheBlaze: "suspected lover is accused of smuggling banned chips to China-linked cutouts"; Fox News: Trump "believe[s] he's suffering greatly." Crowder claimed Alice Huang is "a former reporter for Chinese State TV" (unverified; see Quarantine).
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	CNBC tied the rally to oil and positioning and noted lingering fears that Democratic wins mean tighter data-center rules; Politico focused on the lawsuit.
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on market prints and the filing. MODERATE on the FBI inquiry (Trump's statement; no FBI confirmation).

ITEM 6: Gulf — Reuters Source: US Strikes on Qeshm Targeted Radar, Missile and Mine-Laying Sites; IRGC Denies Mines Cleared; East-West Pipeline Hit; No New UKMTO Warnings Found

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	A senior Iranian source told Reuters that US airstrikes have targeted radar used for air defense and ship navigation, missile-launcher bases, and naval mine-laying systems. Qeshm was hit multiple times over the past week, including strikes overnight into Monday, 09 NOV, and explosions were reported near Jask (Reuters via Iran International). ISW/CTP assessed the strikes are likely meant to degrade Iran's ability to target shipping, after Iranian attacks on vessels hit a monthly high in October. No new CENTCOM statement on the Sunday-night strikes was found. IRGC spokesman Hossein Mohebi said, "No war mines have been cleared from the Strait of Hormuz, and this claim is an outright lie" (Iran International). On 09 NOV, the Saudi Energy Ministry said projectiles hit part of the East-West Pipeline in Medina Province, causing minor damage without disrupting operations. The Saudi-led coalition said it struck three Houthi ballistic-missile production facilities in Sanaa Governorate, and Houthi media said Saudi Arabia struck Hudaydah airport (ISW citing the ministry, Reuters, and coalition spokesman Turki al-Maliki). A drone strike on 08 NOV halted production at the Emirati-owned Khor Mor gas field in Iraqi Kurdistan and cut about 2,800 MW of generation (Iran International; ISW citing Reuters). Syrian officials told AP that Syria will send 600 special forces to Saudi Arabia (ISW). No UKMTO warnings after 200-26 (07 NOV incident) were found this period. CNBC reported Hormuz crude flows have "largely recovered."
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	US strikes on Iran's anti-shipping capability are continuing alongside the diplomacy described in Item 1. Houthi strikes on the East-West Pipeline, Saudi Arabia's Red Sea export bypass, and the Khor Mor outage are the main residual energy-supply risks.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	Iran International citing Reuters (09 NOV, read directly); ISW/CTP Iran Update 09 NOV (read directly); CNBC (10 NOV); UKMTO site (search; no new warnings surfaced).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	No right-leaning Gulf shipping coverage found in monitored X feeds this period.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	ING (via CNBC) said "the return of more Gulf barrels" is taking "geopolitical premium out of crude"; FGE's Fesharaki said "I just can't see a deal being made."
CONFIDENCE	MODERATE on Qeshm targeting (single Iranian source to Reuters, consistent with ISW). HIGH on the Saudi ministry pipeline statement. LOW on the IRGC mine claim. Note: the absence of new UKMTO warnings may be a search gap.

ITEM 7: Elections — Peltola's Alaska Lead Grows to 2,517; Colom Up Nearly 2,600 as Mississippi Cure

Deadline Hits 1700 Today

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	Alaska's update posted Monday afternoon, 09 NOV, added 4,947 ballots. Democrat Mary Peltola now leads Sen. Dan Sullivan 106,321 to 103,804 (2,517) on first choices, up from 637. An Alaska News analysis of the state's ballot-level file found Peltola would finish about 1,600 ahead after ranked-choice rounds on ballots counted so far (an analysis, not a forecast). About 62,700 received ballots are not yet in results, including about 20,000 early votes and 7,589 questioned ballots, which the Division of Elections begins counting today. The ranked-choice tabulation is 18 NOV and certification is targeted for 25 NOV. Ballot Measure 2 (repealing ranked-choice voting) trails 47.7% to 52.3% (Alaska News). In Mississippi, Democrat Scott Colom's lead over Sen. Cindy Hyde-Smith grew to nearly 2,600 votes on Monday (Washington Post; Mississippi Today). Secretary of State Michael Watson said 2,732 absentee mail-in ballots remain outstanding statewide and 14,239 affidavit ballots have been processed, with about 77% accepted. Voters with ID issues have until 5 p.m. (1700 CST) Tuesday, 10 NOV, to cure. Hinds County expects to upload its final affidavit results Wednesday, and counties must certify by 13 NOV. The NRSC has demanded that affidavit ballots be separated and preserved, and Hyde-Smith has not issued a statement since Friday (Mississippi Today). Neither race has been called.
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Both races are trending toward Democrats, which would widen the incoming Senate majority. Trump's "They stole it" claim about Alaska and the NRSC's ballot-preservation demand in Mississippi point to possible contests after certification.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	Alaska News (10 NOV, read directly); Mississippi Today (09 NOV, read directly); Washington Post (09 NOV, lead read); USA Today (09 NOV); Newsweek (headline; paywalled).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	No right-leaning count coverage found in monitored feeds; Trump's fraud claims were the main right-side framing.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	The Washington Post said Colom's lead "remains steady"; USA Today noted that the second Sullivan on the ballot drew 3,600 votes and Republican Gerald Heikes nearly 5,000.
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on official tallies. MODERATE on the Alaska News ranked-choice analysis. LOW on final outcomes.

ITEM 8: Justice Department — Blanche on Fox: "We Will Not Back Down"; No Formal Probe of Democratic Lawmakers Confirmed

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	Following Sunday's CNN remarks (see 09 NOV daily), Attorney General Todd Blanche told Fox News Monday night, 09 NOV, that Democrats' promised investigations were "not surprising at all" and a replay of four years ago, adding, "We will not back down" (Fox News X). Incoming Oversight Chair Robert Garcia's rebuttal on CNN drew coverage (HuffPost headline). No DOJ investigation of Democratic lawmakers had been confirmed as of cutoff.
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	The standoff between the DOJ and the incoming majority's oversight agenda is hardening before January, with no legal action yet.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	Fox News X posts (10 NOV 0232 UTC / 2032 CST 09 NOV); Axios (08 NOV); HuffPost and MS NOW (headlines).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Glenn Beck said "President Trump's order for the DOJ to investigate pre-emptive impeachments is 100% warranted," while adding "I'm all for REAL constitutional oversight."
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	MS NOW's Maddow blog said Trump and Blanche "show signs of panic about congressional oversight."
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on quotes. LOW on any formal probe.

ITEM 9: Russia–Ukraine — Abu Dhabi Trilateral Talks Day One Ends After ~4 Hours; Kushner Pitches "New Framework" for European Security; Resume Wednesday

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	US-mediated talks among Ukraine, Russia, and the US opened in Abu Dhabi on Tuesday, 10 NOV, the first trilateral meeting since February. The first round ended after about four hours (AP: "nearly 4 hours"; Kyiv Independent: "more than four hours") and resumes Wednesday morning, 11 NOV (Ukrainska Pravda, 0656 CST). Envoys Steve Witkoff and Jared Kushner led for the US. Kushner said the US hopes to "create the right security relationships between Ukraine and Russia and Europe so that not only we end this war, we create a new framework and a new understanding" (AFP). The Washington Post reported Kushner proposed a multilateral European security body modeled on the defunct NATO-Russia Council. Before the session, Ukraine's delegation, led by Rustem Umerov with Kyrylo Budanov, Serhii Kyslytsia, Davyd Arakhamia, and Vadym Skibitsky, met national security advisers from the UK, France, Germany, and Italy plus NATO and European Commission officials. Russia's delegation is led by Vladimir Medinsky. Kyiv wants to discuss prisoner exchanges and a maritime and energy ceasefire; Arakhamia said he does not expect a breakthrough in round one (Kyiv Independent). Day-one substance has not been disclosed.
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	This is the main US-led diplomatic event of the week. A US push for a new European security framework that includes Russia is a significant policy signal for NATO allies and is likely to draw scrutiny from the incoming Congress.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	Kyiv Independent (10 NOV, read directly); AP, Washington Post, AFP, Ukrainska Pravda (10 NOV, search excerpts).
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	AFP framed it around European fears that Trump "plans a deal with Moscow on the continent's future."
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on the talks and delegations. LOW on substance (not disclosed).

ITEM 10: Israel / Minnesota — 26th Knesset Sworn In; Eisenkot Vows "National-Emergency Government"; MN-1 Recount Still Pending

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	Israel's 26th Knesset is being sworn in Tuesday, 10 NOV, with 46 first-time members (Times of Israel). Gadi Eisenkot, tasked Sunday with forming a government to replace Netanyahu, said, "I am committed in this complex situation to form a national-emergency government as quickly as possible" (AFP via Naharnet, 0659 CST). In Minnesota, the 1st District remains uncalled: Democrat Jake Johnson leads Rep. Brad Finstad by about 323 votes, and Finstad's recount request awaits the State Canvassing Board on 19 NOV (KTTC, 09 NOV; prior MPR reporting). Rep. Tom Emmer faces a whip challenge today (Item 4).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	A change of Israeli government could reshape coordination on Iran and the pending aid issue. MN-1 has no effect on House control.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	Naharnet/AFP (10 NOV, read directly); Times of Israel, BBC, Jerusalem Post, Ynet (headlines); KTTC (09 NOV, headline); MPR (05 NOV).
