EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The House voted 211–204 Tuesday evening to refer Rep. Massie's Hegseth impeachment resolution to committee, effectively killing it for this Congress; Massie was the only Republican voting no, and Trump called the result an "EXONERATION." House Republicans picked Judiciary Chair Jim Jordan over Steve Scalise, 106–73, as their leader for the minority; Minnesota's Tom Emmer held the whip post over August Pfluger (reported 103–76), and Senate Republicans kept John Thune. October CPI came in hot at +0.4% headline and +0.3% core (consensus +0.3%/+0.2%); with Fed Governor Waller leaning toward a December hike, the 10-year yield rose about nine basis points to 4.986% and stocks fell, led by Nvidia (down about 5.5% after its board hired former acting SDNY U.S. Attorney Joon Kim of Wachtell Lipton to investigate Jensen Huang). Iran's Rezaei said there are no talks with the US and Hormuz stays shut until Washington meets Tehran's seven conditions, while Rubio told G7 allies in Paris that sanctions and the blockade make major combat unnecessary. Shipping attacks continued: UKMTO warning 201-26 reported a tanker hit by a projectile off Oman, and ADNOC said one of its vessels was damaged in UAE waters. Treasury Secretary Bessent reportedly moved to a military base after Iranian threats. Colom leads Mississippi by about 2,600 as the cure deadline passed; Peltola's Alaska lead roughly doubled. Abu Dhabi talks ended with a large prisoner exchange agreed in principle; Kushner and Witkoff head to Moscow Thursday. MN regular gas is $3.8350 and diesel $5.9707 (AAA, 11 NOV); national regular is $3.9429; gold is $4,043 bid (Kitco); debt is $40.560T (09 NOV). Today is Veterans Day; the bond market is closed and stocks are open.

ITEM 1: Congress — House Kills Hegseth Impeachment 211–204 on Motion to Refer; Massie Lone GOP No; Trump: "EXONERATION"

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN

At 1702 CST (6:02 p.m. ET) Tuesday, 10 NOV, the House passed a motion to refer H.Res. 1655, Rep. Thomas Massie's (R-Ky.) eight articles of impeachment against Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth, to committee, 211–204 with 18 not voting (Clerk roll call 317). Republicans voted 210–1 for referral (Massie the lone no, with 7 not voting), Democrats 0–203 (11 not voting), and one independent voted yes (Clerk). NPR and ABC report the measure went to the Judiciary Committee, effectively killing it for the rest of the 119th Congress. Massie said Hegseth "has violated the norms of war" and "somebody's got to put their foot down" (NBC). Outgoing Rep. Don Bacon (R-Neb.) said "I don't really align with the impeachment itself," and Rep. Darrell Issa (R-Calif.) said "It's going to die in the Senate" (NBC). That morning Hegseth said at the Pentagon, "It's a farce, and it's a stunt and everybody knows it," and "These are not high crimes. This is the job, and it's the job well done." Trump posted that Hegseth "gets an ‘A’ PLUS, PLUS, PLUS,” and after the vote called it an “EXONERATION of a Great American Patriot” (NBC). Minority Leader Hakeem Jeffries has said Democrats will “run Pete Hegseth out of town” when they take over next year (NBC).

US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Hegseth is safe through the lame duck. The fight now moves to the Democratic House in January, where oversight hearings and a renewed impeachment effort are likely, though Senate conviction remains out of reach.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	House Clerk roll call 317 (read via search excerpts of clerk.house.gov); NBC News (10 NOV, read directly); NPR and ABC/GMA (10 NOV, search excerpts).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Timcast headlined “‘Total EXONERATION’ Massie Impeachment Of Pete Hegseth FAILS, Trump Celebrates,” and Tim Pool argued Democrats “never seriously intended to impeach him”; Sen. Josh Hawley told Fox’s Jesse Watters it is “a preview of coming attractions.”
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	NBC framed it as Hegseth surviving a narrowly rejected push over “how he has carried out the war in Iran”; NPR said the vote “effectively ends” the effort.
CONFIDENCE	HIGH.

ITEM 2: Congress — Jordan Beats Scalise 106–73 for House GOP Leader; Emmer Keeps Whip; McClain Survives; Thune Kept in Senate

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	In a secret ballot Tuesday morning, 10 NOV, House Republicans elected Judiciary Committee Chair Jim Jordan (Ohio) as their leader for the 120th Congress over Majority Leader Steve Scalise (La.), 106–73 (AP; CBS sources). Minnesota’s Tom Emmer kept the whip job, the No. 2 post, defeating Rep. August Pfluger (Texas); a 103–76 tally was posted by Nick Sortor on X and has not been confirmed by a major outlet. Conference Chair Lisa McClain (Mich.) also survived a challenge (Axios; Star Tribune). Emmer said, “Over the next two years we will regain the trust and confidence of the American people so we can build back our majority in 2028” (CBS Minnesota) and “House Republicans will hold each and every Democrat accountable for every vote cast, every committee hearing held” (Star Tribune). Rep. Pete Stauber’s office said he backed Emmer (Star Tribune). Senate Republicans re-elected John Thune as leader; he will serve as minority leader (AP; Roll Call; Axios). The Star Tribune counts a net loss of 42 House seats for Republicans so far, and CBS says Democrats are on pace for at least 256 seats. Democrats hold their leadership elections next month (Washington Examiner via True.news).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Choosing Jordan signals the House GOP will meet Democratic investigations of the administration head-on rather than moderate. Emmer stays the senior Minnesotan in GOP leadership.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	AP (10 NOV, search excerpt); CBS Minnesota (10 NOV, search excerpt); Axios (11 NOV, search excerpt); Star Tribune (10 NOV, search excerpt); Roll Call and AP on Thune (10 NOV, headlines); True.news aggregating the Washington Examiner, Fox News and Nick Sortor X posts.
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Fox News posted the Jordan win as putting a longtime Trump ally “in charge of the GOP’s fight to regain control of the chamber”; the Washington Examiner led on Jordan’s margin.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	Axios called it a bet “that they shouldn’t move away from President Trump,” noting Republicans “are divided over what went wrong.”
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on outcomes. MODERATE on the 103–76 whip tally (single X source).

ITEM 3: Economy — October CPI +0.4% (Core +0.3%), Both Above Forecast; Waller Leans to December Hike; 10-Year Near 4.99%; Stocks Slip

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	The BLS reported Tuesday, 10 NOV, at 0730 CST that the CPI rose a seasonally adjusted 0.4% in October (consensus 0.3%; September 0.6%) and core CPI rose 0.3% (consensus 0.2%), the third straight 0.3% core reading (CNBC; Reuters). No year-over-year rate was published because the October 2025 shutdown prevented data collection; the Cleveland Fed estimated about 3.8% (Yahoo Finance/AFP). Food rose 0.5% (beef +0.9%, snacks +1%), energy 0.7%, gasoline 1%, electricity 0.9%, natural gas −0.8%, shelter 0.3% (more than 30% of the increase), airfares 0.4%, and used vehicles −1.2% (CNBC; Sharecast). Reuters said it was the third straight monthly gain of 0.4% or more, "cementing expectations" of a Fed hike next month. Fed Governor Christopher Waller said he leans toward a December hike and would be open to 50 basis points if inflation comes in above forecasts (Sharecast). The 10-year Treasury yield rose more than nine basis points to settle at 4.986% (Sharecast). The Dow closed down 157.86 (−0.30%) at 52,231.89, the S&P 500 −0.38% at 7,520.93, and the Nasdaq −0.74% at 25,065.87; the NFIB small-business index slipped to 97.8. CoreWeave beat estimates (revenue $3.66 billion) and raised guidance (Sharecast). WTI settled at $86.04 and Brent at $91.49 (search excerpt of CNBC/commodities wrap). At 0330 CST Wednesday, Dow futures were +0.17%, S&P futures +0.7%, and Nasdaq-100 futures +1.6%, with Brent at $92.20 and WTI at $86.53 (Stocktwits via Yahoo Finance). The bond market is closed for Veterans Day.

US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	A hotter-than-expected print, with food and shelter driving it, makes a December rate hike (FOMC 08–09 DEC) the base case and keeps mortgage and borrowing costs high. Lower pump prices are not yet showing up as overall relief.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	CNBC (10 NOV, search excerpts of two articles); Reuters (10 NOV, search excerpt); Yahoo Finance/AFP (10 NOV, search excerpt); Trading Economics (search excerpt); Sharecast US close (10 NOV, read directly); Stocktwits via Yahoo Finance (11 NOV, read directly).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	No right-leaning CPI coverage surfaced in monitored X feeds this period.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	CNBC said it was "complicating Fed's inflation fight" and cited economists naming the Iran war, AI, tariffs and housing as drivers.
CONFIDENCE	HIGH.

ITEM 4: Nvidia — Board Hires Ex-SDNY Chief Joon Kim (Wachtell Lipton) to Investigate Huang; Stock Falls ~5.5%; Premarket Bounce

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	On Tuesday, 10 NOV, Nvidia's board said: "The independent members of the NVIDIA Board have retained former acting U.S. Attorney of the Southern District of New York Joon H. Kim and his firm Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz to conduct a thorough and independent investigation." The probe covers whether company secrets or national security were compromised after Jensen Huang acknowledged an affair with Alice Huang, a technology executive affiliated with Nvidia customer Megaspeed whom US intelligence has reportedly concluded is passing information to Beijing (CNBC, citing NYT and FT reports). The board said Sunday it has no reason to believe national security or Nvidia secrets were compromised (CNBC). Nvidia closed at $168.89, down 5.47% (search excerpt; CNBC said "6%"), after a 4.27% drop Monday. Trump said Monday the FBI is "looking into" Huang (AP; see 10 NOV daily). In premarket Wednesday the stock was up about 3.5%; Michael Burry said it could become "a heck of a trade" (Stocktwits via Yahoo Finance).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	The world's most important AI-chip supplier now faces an internal probe led by a former top federal prosecutor, an FBI inquiry described by the president, and a securities class action. That is an overhang on AI-heavy indexes and on export-control policy before Nvidia's 17 NOV earnings.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	CNBC (10 NOV, read directly); Washington Post, FT, Bloomberg Law, Lianhe Zaobao (10 NOV, headlines/excerpts); AP and NPR (10 NOV, headlines); Stocktwits via Yahoo Finance (11 NOV, read directly).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	No new right-leaning Nvidia framing surfaced in monitored feeds this period (see 10 NOV daily for TheBlaze and Crowder).

MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	CNBC described Nvidia as “thrust into turmoil” and investors worried Huang “could result in the co-founder and CEO being forced out.”
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on the board statement and market moves. MODERATE on the intelligence conclusion about Alice Huang (press reports citing unnamed sources).

ITEM 5: Iran — Rezaei: No Talks, Hormuz Shut Until Seven Conditions Met; Rubio at G7: Pressure Makes Major Combat Unnecessary; Bessent Moved to Military Base

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	Iran’s Supreme National Security Council secretary Mohsen Rezaei told Al Mayadeen Tuesday, 10 NOV, that claims “about continuing negotiations or holding a meeting in Qatar is a pure lie.” He said Hormuz will not reopen until the US meets Iran’s seven conditions (set out in a June interim agreement, per Reuters), and that Washington’s “initial response was insufficient and deceptive” (Al Jazeera; The Hindu/Reuters). Known conditions include lifting sanctions and the blockade, unfreezing assets, and ending fighting on all fronts including Lebanon; Araghchi told IRNA “the only solution is to adopt a language of respect” and that the two-day proposal “remain[s] on the table” (Al Jazeera; Dawn). Washington insists nuclear issues be part of initial talks (Dawn). In Paris after two days of G7 meetings, Secretary of State Rubio said, “We don’t need to conduct military strikes if we’re achieving the same objective through economic means and economic pressure. That’s not stalemate” (Express Tribune; Dawn). Qatar’s prime minister joined UK, German, Italian, French and Saudi foreign ministers on Iran on the G7 sidelines (Dawn). Trump wrote Monday, “We are seeing positive momentum toward an end to this Conflict,” and said further strikes were “quite unlikely” (Dawn). Separately, The New York Times and Reuters, citing people familiar, reported that Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent moved from his Washington-area home to a military base after an Iranian threat against his life; a Treasury spokesperson told the Times Bessent “will not be deterred” (CBS/AFP). Fox News, citing a senior official, said threats had reached “more than an advanced stage.”
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Both sides are publicly far apart on sequencing, so the “status quo” of blockade plus sporadic shipping attacks is the likely near-term path. Iranian targeting of senior US officials is a growing homeland-security concern.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	Al Jazeera (11 NOV, search excerpt); The Hindu/Reuters (11 NOV, search excerpt); Dawn/AFP (11 NOV, search excerpt); Express Tribune (search excerpt); NPR (11 NOV, headline); CBS/AFP on Bessent (11 NOV, read directly); Reuters, Guardian, USA Today (headlines); Fox News X.
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Fox News led with Bessent’s relocation as “BREAKING” and the “advanced stage” threat language.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	Al Jazeera framed it as “Iran denies talks”; NPR led with “Trump says US won Iran war, Iran responds.”
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on on-record statements. MODERATE on the Bessent relocation (anonymous sources, multiple outlets; no official confirmation of the move found).

ITEM 6: Gulf Shipping — UKMTO 201-26: Tanker Hit by Projectile Off Oman; ADNOC Vessel Damaged in UAE Waters; IRGC Claims Three Tankers Hit Mines

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	UKMTO warning 201-26 reported that at 1338 UTC (0738 CST) Tuesday, 10 NOV, a tanker was struck by an unidentified projectile about 19 nautical miles northeast of Lima, Oman; the master said all crew were safe with no environmental impact, and a damage assessment was planned for first light (UKMTO via gCaptain). ADNOC Logistics & Services said one of its vessels “sustained damage following an attack in the UAE’s territorial waters” that afternoon, without naming it or reporting casualties (WAM via gCaptain; Dawn). It is unclear whether the incidents are linked. The IRGC claimed three oil tankers caught fire after hitting naval mines on an “unauthorised route” in the eastern strait (Al Jazeera; Dawn); this is not independently confirmed. The JMIC kept the Hormuz threat level at SEVERE on 08 NOV, reported daily transits in the single digits to low double digits against a 2025 average of about 138, and estimated about 162 ships anchored near Fujairah and Khor Fakkan. US naval coordination showed 91 US-facilitated transits over 05–07 NOV (gCaptain). Stocktwits/Yahoo cites 37 ship attacks in October and 10 so far in November; Dawn reported that loaded LNG tankers leaving Hormuz hit their highest monthly level since the war began.

US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Continued attacks keep a risk premium in crude (Brent rebounded above $92 this morning) and diesel elevated, limiting the pump-price relief US consumers have seen.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	gCaptain (10 NOV, read directly, citing UKMTO 201-26, WAM and JMIC); Al Jazeera and Dawn (11 NOV, search excerpts); Stocktwits via Yahoo Finance (11 NOV).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	No right-leaning Gulf shipping coverage found in monitored feeds this period.
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on UKMTO and ADNOC statements. LOW on the IRGC three-tanker mine claim.

ITEM 7: Elections — Colom Up ~2,600 as Mississippi Cure Deadline Passes; Peltola’s Alaska Lead Roughly Doubles; Judge Tossed DOJ Alaska Suit

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	Mississippi: As of 1530 CST Tuesday, 10 NOV, Democrat Scott Colom led Sen. Cindy Hyde-Smith by 2,607 votes out of 953,547 counted (0.27 points, about 97% in), with independent Ty Pinkins at 20,034 (AP via CNBC). Tuesday was the deadline both to cure affidavit ballots and for receipt of mail ballots postmarked by Election Day. By day’s end Colom led by just over 2,600, with an unknown number of affidavit ballots and 2,578 absentee-by-mail ballots still uncounted; Secretary of State Watson said more than 15,500 affidavits had been processed as of Monday, with just over three-quarters accepted (Mississippi Today). Hyde-Smith said, “Votes should be counted, and that’s all we’re concentrating on today.” Colom said Watson “created chaos” with the affidavit rules (Mississippi Today). Counties must certify by Friday, 13 NOV; state law allows no recount in a statewide race and no runoff (Washington Post; Mississippi Today). Alaska: Tuesday’s update added more than 24,000 votes; Democrat Mary Peltola leads Sen. Dan Sullivan 49.0% to 47.2%, and the AP estimates 84% counted. A search summary of the results gives 118,926 to 114,676 (4,250), up from 2,517 Monday. The other Sullivan on the ballot, Daniel J. Sullivan Jr. of Petersburg, has 4,027 votes, about 200 fewer than the gap (Alaska Public Media). Peltola’s campaign said she is “on her way to a decisive victory”; Sullivan’s team did not comment. Democrat Jonathan Kreiss-Tomkins has 49.9% for governor, and Ballot Measure 2 (ranked-choice repeal) is failing 47%–53%. The next results release is Friday; ranked-choice tabulation is 18 NOV (Alaska Public Media). Earlier, U.S. District Judge Sharon Gleason dismissed the Justice Department’s suit seeking to block certification if Sullivan lost, finding the DOJ lacked standing (AP; CBS; Alaska Journal of Commerce, 09 NOV).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Both seats are trending Democratic, which would widen the incoming Senate majority. The dismissal of the DOJ suit removes one federal obstacle to Alaska certification; Mississippi contests would have to go through county courts.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	CNBC citing AP (10 NOV, search excerpt); Mississippi Today (10 NOV, search excerpt); Washington Post (search excerpt); Delta Democrat-Times (search excerpt); Alaska Public Media (10 NOV, read directly); ADN and Fox News (headlines); AP, CBS, Alaska Journal of Commerce on the Gleason ruling (search excerpts).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Fox News headlined that Peltola “expands lead”; no right-leaning Mississippi framing surfaced in monitored feeds.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	Mississippi Today emphasized voters’ struggles under “strict election laws”; Alaska Public Media noted Trump “falsely claimed” Sullivan had already won.

CONFIDENCE	HIGH on official/AP tallies. MODERATE on the exact Alaska vote counts (search summary, consistent with percentages read directly). LOW on final outcomes.

ITEM 8: Russia–Ukraine — Abu Dhabi Talks End With Large Prisoner Swap Agreed in Principle; No Ceasefire Breakthrough; Kushner and Witkoff to Moscow Thursday

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	Two days of US-mediated talks in Abu Dhabi ended Wednesday, 11 NOV, with Ukraine and Russia agreeing in principle to a major prisoner exchange. Kushner said, “we agreed that we’re going to have the biggest humanitarian release of prisoners, which we’re going to finalise the numbers tomorrow.” Umerov and Medinsky confirmed it without details; Zelenskyy said Tuesday the sides discussed 1,000 each, possibly rising to 1,500 (Euronews). There was no breakthrough on a ceasefire or territory: Russia still insists Ukraine withdraw from the rest of Donbas and rejects an immediate ceasefire. Kushner said he and Witkoff travel to Moscow Thursday, 12 NOV, to meet Putin, then to Dublin to meet Zelenskyy (Euronews; Fox News). Medinsky said of European representatives in Abu Dhabi, “We don’t really understand in what capacity they are here” (Euronews).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	The Moscow meeting is the next decision point for the administration’s peace push and its proposed European security framework; the Europeans’ exclusion from the trilateral format will draw allied and congressional scrutiny.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	Euronews (11 NOV, read directly); AP, RFE/RL, Guardian live, RIA (11 NOV, headlines/search summary); Fox News X.
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Fox News posted the Moscow trip as “NEW,” noting a second meeting with Zelenskyy “already planned.”
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	Euronews said the swap “emerged as the only tangible result.”
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on the outcome and travel plan. LOW on swap size (not finalized).

ITEM 9: Washington — House Oversight GOP Epstein Report; Mullin Floats DACA Status as Miller Takes Over; Press Secretary Still Open

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	On Tuesday, 10 NOV, the Republican majority of the House Oversight Committee released “A Review of the Federal Government’s Mishandling of the Jeffrey Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell Criminal Investigations.” Per summaries, it finds Epstein and Maxwell ran a sex-trafficking operation that recruited vulnerable young women and expanded internationally after his 2008 conviction, and it calls on DOJ to reinterview witnesses, investigate associates, and give survivors unredacted access to their records (Oversight Committee release; Politico). Committee Democrats issued their own report, “The Price of Non-Prosecution” (Oversight Democrats PDF). On immigration, DHS Secretary Markwayne Mullin said Trump encouraged him to work with Democrats and suggested Congress could create permanent legal status for DACA recipients, with no details or timeline; both rejected broad amnesty (Fox News; Washington Post). Asked by Fox why he floated DACA, Mullin said it “applies to children that were brought here through no fault of their own” (TheBlaze X), and he agreed with Laura Ingraham that “you can’t trust the Democrat Party” on a deal (Fox News X). Semafor headlined that Miller’s promotion “extinguishes hope for immigration deal.” The press secretary post remains open; conservative host Ben Ferguson told Sean Hannity he would be “honored to serve” if asked (Fox News X).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	Mixed signals on immigration persist: an administration opening on DACA versus a hard-line chief of staff. The Oversight reports keep Epstein-related pressure on DOJ into the new Congress.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	House Oversight Committee release and report PDF (10 NOV, search excerpts); Oversight Democrats report (search excerpt); Politico (10 NOV, headline); Fox News and Washington Post (09 NOV, search excerpts); Semafor and PolitiFact (10 NOV, headlines); Fox News and TheBlaze X posts.

MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	TheBlaze posted “No amnesty. We’ve seen this movie before”; Jesse Watters called the Epstein findings “the tip of the iceberg.”
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	Semafor said Miller’s rise ends deal hopes; PolitiFact reviewed what Trump has done after saying he was “too tough.”
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on releases and quotes. MODERATE on report contents (summaries, not read in full).

ITEM 10: Israel / Minnesota — Knesset Sworn In Amid Heckling; Eisenkot Cancels Likud Talks; MN-1 Gap 322 Ahead of 19 NOV Canvass

WHAT / WHERE / WHEN	Israel’s 26th Knesset was sworn in Tuesday, 10 NOV. In his speech, Netanyahu called for “a national unity government” but said “We cannot rely on a narrow government with supporters of terrorism and enemies of Israel,” prompting confrontations including Naftali Bennett shouting “What about the Qatari advisers?” Gadi Eisenkot’s Yashar! party then canceled Wednesday’s negotiating meeting with Likud, saying “Netanyahu does not want unity”; Likud said it remains open to talks (Israel Hayom). Eisenkot was recommended by 67 MKs to Netanyahu’s 46 and has 28 days, extendable by 14, to form a government (Israel Hayom). In Minnesota’s 1st District, Democrat Jake Johnson leads Rep. Brad Finstad by 322 votes; Finstad’s publicly funded recount can begin only after the State Canvassing Board certifies on 19 NOV, and KSTP reports Minnesota is poised for four recounts (search summary of Star Tribune, MPR, KSTP).
US IMPACT ASSESSMENT	A slower Israeli coalition process prolongs uncertainty on Iran coordination. MN-1 has no effect on House control.
SOURCE SYNOPSIS	Israel Hayom (10 NOV, read directly); BBC, Ynet, Jerusalem Post, ABC Australia (headlines); Star Tribune, MPR, KSTP, Minnesota Express (search excerpts).
MEDIA FRAMING (RIGHT)	Fox News covered protesters confronting former President Biden in Dublin (not an item); no right-leaning Israel or MN-1 coverage surfaced.
MEDIA FRAMING (LEFT/MAINSTREAM)	ABC Australia led with “taunts, heckling and fiery Netanyahu speech”; Ynet said Netanyahu’s bid to block a rival government “fades.”
CONFIDENCE	HIGH on Israel. MODERATE on the MN-1 margin (search summary; one vote smaller than yesterday’s figure).
